Newspapers via the E-resources Guide

1. Accessing Nexis UK via the E-Resources Guide

1.1 If you haven’t already done so, open the Social Policy & Social Work subject list in the E-resources Guide.

1.2 Click on Nexis UK.

The resource will open in a new window. If prompted, login with your University login and password.

2. Nexis UK

Nexis UK gives online access to a range of UK broadsheets (eg. Guardian and Independent) and tabloids largely from the 1990’s onwards.

2.1 Click on More sources beneath the Sources dropdown to open the Source page:

2.2 In the Find a Source searchbox in the top right-hand corner type guardian and click Go.

2.3 Tick the checkbox by The Guardian (London):

2.4 Click OK – Continue near the top right of the page:
Note you can select more than one newspaper at a time and can browse through the various sources on the Browse Sources tab.

2.5 Type "social worker*" in the first Search terms box.

2.6 Use the Specify date drop-down menu to restrict the search to the Previous 6 months.

2.7 Click on Search.

The results are displayed with the most recently published items first.

2.8 To view an article, click on its title. Note that you can email, save or print your results.

2.9 Try some topics you are interested in. Note that you can search within your initial search results using the search box in the top right-hand corner:

Search within results child protection Go

2.10 When you have finished searching, close the Nexis UK window.
