Navigating the Virtual Library

You will need to use the library catalogue, YorSearch, to find materials that will support your studies. YorSearch can be found at http://yorsearch.york.ac.uk/

Complete the questions below to get an understanding of how to use YorSearch:

1. Finding Books

Choose two of the following. What is the book’s location? Is it available as an e-book?

Location: ………………………………………… E-book: Yes/No

Location: ………………………………………… E-book: Yes/No

Location: ………………………………………… E-book: Yes/No

Location: ………………………………………… E-book: Yes/No

2. Finding Journals

For which years is the journal British Journal of Nursing available online?

……………………………
3. Finding journal articles

Choose two of the following. What are the condition/disease(s) being discussed?

Journal of Clinical Nursing, 17(23), 3083-3091. [Tip: choose Wiley Online]

Answer:
...........................................................................................................................................

International Journal of Nursing Studies, 46(10), 1374-85. [Tip: choose Elsevier]

Answer:
...........................................................................................................................................

Issues in Mental Health Nursing, 21(4), 387-96.

Answer:
...........................................................................................................................................

Nursing Times* 106(36), 10-13. [Tip: choose Journals@Ovid]

Answer:
...........................................................................................................................................

4. Your Library Account

Login to YorSearch to check Your Library Account. Can you see what you have on loan? Yes/No

*Note on online access to articles in Nursing Times
The University has electronic access to selected articles only from the Nursing Times. In some cases it will be necessary to use the print copies of this title held in the University Library or local hospital libraries.

For more help and advice, contact David Brown, the Academic Liaison Librarian for Health Sciences. Email: lib-healthsci@york.ac.uk.